

PRESCHOOL CORNER

Week two whizzed by in a flash! The Camp Regesh preschoolers are having a BLAST!!!!!!

We had tons of fun cooling off this week in our on-site water park! Our preschoolers were so brave as they zoomed down the water slides. What can be more fun than a bubble blaster?! We all loved playing and covering ourselves in the bubbles head to toe! Speaking of bubbles, did you see those giant bubbles we made in pioneering?! What fun to use our own bubble wands to make super sized bubbles! Thank you, Morah Tova. Swimming, boating, sprinklers and playing duck duck splash are some more fun water activities we enjoyed this week. We just can't get enough!

It was so exciting to see all our campers dressed up in red, white and blue in the spirit of July 4th. In art this week we created our July 4th masterpieces. Ask us how we made those beautiful fireworks?! (Dipping squishy, spikey balls into paint!) We also all had so much fun at our annual July 4th relay races! Running, jumping, and spinning was so thrilling. All campers went home with their very own American flag. What a great way to end the day!

Looking forward to next week Wackadoodle Sports Day, Wacky Chad, the Floor is Lava Day, Dr. Schnitzel and TONS more!!!! ONLY AT CAMP REGESH!!!!

D'VAR TORAH

Few survived of Korach's crew,
Convinced that their leader's message was true.
Except for his sons- who somehow escaped!
What did they do that saved them from his fate?

Korach had "questions" that appeared very tough;
"Instead of a mezuzah, wouldn't sefarim (holy books) be enough?
If a string of blue techeilet makes a tallit complete,
Wouldn't making it all blue- instead- be real neat?"

But a mezuzah is for strength as we walk out the door,
And tzitzit remind us what we're here for.
Sefarim are great and blue's a nice color,
But what does one thing have to do with the other?

The sons of Korach, wanted Truth, nothing less,
And avoided so much confusion, so much of the mess,
That Korach was "swallowed" by, wanting honor instead,
His goal wasn't Emet... and it went to his head.

Korach's desire for honor and fame,
Polluted his thinking- and only brought shame.
When we learn Torah with love, open to truth at each turn,
We'll avoid Korach's pitfalls- Torah's so sweet to learn!

WHAT'S COOKING?

Campers had a AMAZING time egg washing puff pastry, whipping up whipped cream, cutting fresh strawberries, piling it all together and sprinkling it with powdered sugar for a delicious eclair treat! Can you guess what we are making next week? Hint: It begins with the letter "G" from REGESH Thank you Tova and your assistants Sori and Ellie for these fantastic projects!

GIRLS CAMP

Camp Regesh- it's week 2 and we're going full speed ahead!! Sports, specialties, cheering and singing, we took everything up a notch and it's only getting better!!

Hey! Hay! Hey! It's our ONE'S off for an adventure!! On Tuesday our campers were off for a day at the farm- they enjoyed feeding the animals and playing on the retro playground- and of course the hay rides were a highlight for all! The One's truly do have the most fun!!

Back in camp, energy was pumping over at the astroturf- what's going on there?? WOA??? It's our On Site Water Park!! From beginners to our most daredevil campers (and counselors!!), there was something for everyone! And let's not forget the AWESOME bubble blaster that we just couldn't get enough of! What a fantastic way to cool down on a hot summer day!

We could not pull off the most incredible summer without the hard work of each and every staff member! On Wednesday, the REGESH staff was treated to a delicious breakfast of cinnamon buns and iced coffee- thank you for making Regesh the best place to be!

RED, WHITE, AND BLUE- Camp Regesh knows how to celebrate in style! Deckerd out in awesome costumes, accessories, some awesome tutus and even face paint, Regesh girls do it right! The day started off on target as we watched our counselors compete in a red, white and blue ball challenge- can you get it in the hole?? Our campers did an awesome job keeping the morale and cheering their counselors on- congrats to Chana, Aliza and Zeldy for coming out victorious! "Stick out your Tongue" was up next in an epic, hilarious and competitive game where campers race to get a chair and stick their tongues out to show us what team they were on! The Air Heads were definitely enjoyed by all :)

Before we knew it, it was already time for our Friday theme activity! Getting ready for camp is the first thing we do every morning! Each bunk ran around camp searching for items that they need to do or have in order to get to camp on time each week- a great time was had by all! We said goodbye to the week with an awesome Shabbos choir put on by bunk 4C and a delicious treat of chocolate eclair ice cream bars!

Wow!! I really can't believe that 2 weeks have already flown by!! Get ready for week 3- better than ever! Sports day, kicking off our league season! Wacky Chad!!
